THE RATE WAR ON.

The Missouri Pacific's Cut Rate Schedule Goes Into Effect.

Efforts to Make It Withdraw the Rates Prove Ineffectual.

Other Roads Follow the Lead and Low Fares are Announced.

The Trans-Missouri Association Will Probably Go to Pieces.

The Cut Rates.

DENVER, March 7. The cut in passenger rates to and from Colorado has been inaugurated by the Missouri Pacific. The efforts of the competitors of the Missouri Pacific through their presidents to induce the latter to withdraw the cut rates having failed, a meeting of the passenger department of the Trans-Missouri association has been called for to-morrow at Kansas City for the purpose of further discussing the actions of the Missouri Pacific with regard to its cut rates. It is admitted by prominent railroad men that in view of the fact that Jay Gould has sustained the action of his general passenger agent, Mr. H. C. Townsend, nothing can be accomplished at the meeting to-morrow.

Late this afternoon the Burlington posted a bulletin in front of their office announcing that on the 11th inst. they would sell first class tickets to Chicago for $18, second class $15; first class to St. Louis $15. Upon the announcement of this rate the Rio Grande immediately met it.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 7. It is considered probable that the Trans Missouri association, which meets here to-morrow, will go to pieces. The recent reduction in the rate from Kansas City to Denver made by the Missouri Pacific went into effect to-day. The rate was cut from $18 15 to $10 by that road. As a consequence of this reduction all of the passengers bound for Colorado went via the Missouri Pacific this evening. To-morrow a meeting of the Trans-Missouri association will be held in Kansas City. These violations of the agreement on the part of the Missouri Pacific will be discussed. As the people of that road state that they propose to maintain the rate and the other roads cannot meet it in accordance with the rules of the association, it is more than likely that the association will be discontinued.

CHICAGO, March 7. The Rock Island has given notice that, beginning on Monday, the passenger rate from Kansas City to Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo will be $10. This is to meet the Missouri Pacific cut. Other roads will follow suit. This makes the rate from Chicago to Denver $18 and $15, first and second class.

List of the Killed.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 7. The following is the list of the killed in the accident near Hamburg last night: J. Swain, colored porter; Jno. W. Flynn, Canton, Ohio, travelling agent; Jno. T. Power, Fitchfield, Mass., travelling agent; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stewart, Rochester, and Mr. and Mrs. Jos. D. Baucus, Saratoga Springs, N. Y. This morning the bodies of the killed were brought to the Central depot where the coroner took charge of them. Mrs. Baucus was a bride married only a week.

There were many sad incidents connected with the wreck, one of the saddest being the killing as above stated of Mrs. Joseph Baucus, of Saratoga. She and her husband were on their wedding trip, having been married about a week. The husband was terribly injured, but his physical suffering was nothing compared to his mental agony. He acted in a distracted manner calling upon the doctors to save her and raving over her broken and bruised body. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stewart, of Rochester, were killed instantly while their eighteen months old girl in its mother's arms did not receive a scratch.

Superintendent Couch, of the Lake Shore road, says that the sleeping car conductor first discovered the break and went into three different cars pulling the automatic brake cords and was trying to set up the hand brakes when the crash came. Couch could not assign any reason for the failure of the automatic air brakes to work; they are generally reliable. When asked why the engineer with the front part of the train did not run away from the rear section, he said the break occurred on the down grade and that gave increased speed to the rear section, making it impossible for the front section to get away.

The engineer claims the brakes on his part of the train became set and he could not get away from the rear part in time. He did not discover the break when it occurred, his attention being necessarily directed ahead most of the time.

Mr. Haupt, a well known lawyer of this city who was in the first section, in an interview to-night said: "The truth is the train was not in a fit condition to carry human beings from the time it left Cleveland. A coupling broke before we left the city but afterward the conductor assured me all was right. At Dunkirk the train parted twice, the steam couplings were broken and the air brake failed to act. A traveling companion and I discussed the situation and almost made up our minds to get off there and wait for another train, but finally took the chances." Mr. Haupt says the wreck occurred at 8 55 o'clock, only seven miles from Buffalo, yet it was two hours and a half before a relief train arrived on the scene.

Two Chinamen Want to Land.

WASHINGTON, March 7. The collector of customs at Port Townsend, Washington, reports to the treasury department the arrival of the American bark Gerard C. Tobey of New Bedford from Shanghai, having on board two Chinese, who shipped at Shanghai before the deputy United States consul general as steward and cook, to be discharged at Port Townsend. The collector refused to allow them to land. Assistant Secretary Tichenor informed the collector that there appears to be nothing in the Chinese exclusion act prohibiting the bring of Chinamen on American vessels at foreign ports and that the present case does not appear to necessitate any action on the part of the department or collector further than to take the proper precautions and exercise the necessary vigilance to prevent the landing of the Chinamen referred to in violation of the law.

Indian and Irishman.

ASHLAND, Wis., March 7. Alf. Besan, a full-blooded Indian, defeated Mike Brannon, an Irishman, in a bloody six-round fight with hard gloves this morning. Besan is a magnificent specimen of physical manhood and stripped at 160 pounds. His long reach and ability to take extraordinary punishment like a bear won him the fight.

Hopes of Saving the Steamer.

SCITUATE, Mass., March 7.—If the sea subsides it is believed the steamer Dauntless, ashore here, will be saved together with her cargo.

Davies' Denial.

CLEVELAND, March 7. The Peter Jackson party arrived to-day. In an interview Parson Davies denied the story that Jackson was nearly knocked out at Troy by Lambert.

Courts Will Not Interfere.

LONDON, March 7. The courts have declined to restrain the Pelican club from ejecting from membership George Bard for his action in connection with the Slavin-Smith prize fight.

Accident on the Erie.

ROCHESTER, March 7. An accident occurred this morning on the Erie road near Painted Post; but it was not so serious as at first reported. Three persons were injured but none killed. A car was derailed by an open switch.

Weather Indications.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, D.C., March 7, 10 p.m.

Indications for twenty-four hours commencing Saturday, March 8, at 7 a. m.: For Colorado Light rain; southeasterly winds; warmer.

Felix Kampf Hanged.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., March 7. Felix Kampf was hanged here this morning. The crime for which he suffered death was the murder of his daughter, Mary, aged 20, and his son William. It was a brutal deed and without adequate provocation.

Snow Storm in Leadville.

DENVER, March 7. A Leadville special to the Times says: The heavy snow storm ceased yesterday but it commenced again this morning and snow is now falling fast. The telephone line between here and Denver is broken and is buried under fifteen feet of snow.

Rates from New York Reduced.

NEW YORK, March 7. The railroad pool reduced the rates for immigrations to-day. The rate to Colorado points from New York yesterday was $41, and to day it is $13 less. The fare to San Francisco has been reduced, and in fact to every point west of the Mississippi river it is reduced.

Funeral Services Held.

LONDON, March 7.—Services over the remains of young Abraham Lincoln were held to-day at the family residence by Rev. Monroe Gibson, formerly of Chicago. The coffin was hidden beneath a mass of flowers. After the services the body was placed in the catacombs in the Kensal Green cemetery.

An Anonymous Appeal.

WASHINGTON, March 7. Secretary Proctor this morning received a telegram from San Francisco signed "Committee for the Unemployed," asking for aid and food from the war department. Inasmuch as Committee gave no names and no evidence of being authorized to make such a statement the secretary has decided not to consider the appeal.

Big Brewing House Assigns.

NEW YORK, March 7. These instrument papers of the members of the brewing firm of Monroe Eckstein, which has been rated at from one-half to a whole million by the commercial agencies were filed to day. Leopold Wertheimer, a member of the firm and also the head of a San Francisco cigar and tobacco house, assigned his interest therein also.

Colorado Felon Wanted Elsewhere.

DENVER, March 7. Deputy Sheriff O'Neill of New York arrived here to day with a requisition for C. S. West, now in the Colorado penitentiary. Governor Cooper honored the requisition and West will be released next week. He will be immediately arrested by an officer and taken east where he is wanted for forgery.

A Ghastly Tragedy.

MOBERLY, March 7. A ghastly tragedy has come to light in this city. A parcel was left at the residence of Prince Dulaney, which, upon examination, was found to contain the head of a woman. With the parcel was an anonymous note saying: "This is our first exploit. We will soon out-do Jack the Ripper." It is believed she was killed for betraying the nihilists.

The Federation Condemned.

QUEBEC, March 7. Resolutions condemning the imperial federation proposed by David and seconded by Premier Mercier, were passed in the legislative assembly to-day, as follows:

"Resolved, That this house is opposed to an imperial federation which would prevent Canada from having, with other nations on the American continent, relations the most favorable to commercial and industrial prosperity and social and political developments."

Cool Weather.

ST. JOHNSBURG, Vt., March 7. The thermometer registered 25 degrees below zero this morning. At Lyndonville it was 35 below.

TROY, N. Y., March 7. The temperature at Saratoga this morning was 24 degrees below. In the Adirondacks it was from 20 to 35 below.

ALLEGAN, Mich., March 7. The cold weather for the past few days has greatly damaged the peach crop of next season.

World's Fair Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 7. The Chicago delegation to day discussed with the house sub committee the world's fair bill. It is thought the bill will be finished Monday. The chairman of the Chicago committee, Lyman J. Gage, to day received a telegram from a number of Chicago gentlemen representing an aggregate capital of between $50,000,000 and $75,000,000, saying: "We wish you continued success in Washington. We will stand by you and the committee in every way. Chicago will now, as in the past, prove equal to any emergency. You can count on our hearty support."

Injunction Granted.

NEW YORK, March 7. The New York Commercial company obtained, from Judge Andrews of the supreme court to day an injunction against a number of persons including Frank Rice, secretary of state, restraining them from taking any proceeding under the license issued to them by the secretary of state to form a corporation under the name of the New York Commercial company of Alaska as well as restraining the secretary of state from issuing a certificate of incorporation to any company having that name or any other resembling it.

The Sugar Combine.

NEW YORK, March 7. The reported combination among the wholesale dealers in sugar has caused considerable comment here. There seems to be no fear, however, that the price of sugar will be increased to any great extent. F. B. Thurber says the combination has extended between New York and New England for some years and now it is proposed to extend it to the entire country. It is not a trust but the object is to prevent irregularity of prices and cutting below legitimate profits. The price at which sugar may be sold to retailers will be telegraphed daily to the wholesalers and at the end of the year the dealers will give a rebate of 1 cent per pound to all who have not sold under the tabulated rate.

RUM WAS TO BLAME.

Sensational Shooting Affray Which Occurred in Chicago.

Patrick Crowe Shoots a Woman, Two Officers and a Citizen.

Crazed by Effects of a Spree He Robs a Woman of Her Jewelry.

The Long and Exciting Chase After Him and Final Capture.

Sensational Shooting Affray.

CHICAGO, March 7.—The most sensational shooting affray which has occurred in this city in a long time, took place to-night, Patrick Crowe being the principal. He succeeded in wounding a woman slightly and two officers and a citizen badly. One of the officers will probably die.

Crowe came here from Omaha a short time ago and has been working in a packing house. Last night he wound up a protracted spree in a disreputable house on Clark street. This afternoon he demanded at the point of a revolver from Annie Hall, in whose company he was, jewels valued at $1,500, which she had. The woman screamed and Crowe fired. The bullet lodged in the fleshy part of her arm. Crowe seized the jewelry and rushed toward the street. At the door he was met by a colored woman whom he knocked senseless with the butt end of his revolver.

Crowe got away for the time being and later in the afternoon he pawned the diamonds. Officer Linnville, who had been watching for him, met him at the door of the pawn shop and attempted to arrest him, but was instantly shot down, the bullet passing through his face and cutting his tongue in two. Crowe ran down town, followed by hundreds of citizens. Officer Briscoe, located several blocks down, attempted, with a drawn revolver, to stop the flying man, but Crowe promptly planted a bullet in Briscoe's breast. Soon after he turned and discharged the last cartridge at his pursuers, the bullet striking C. E. Cole in the arm.

At last Crowe was cornered in a blind alley, but kept the crowd at bay with the empty revolver, until two detectives stole a march on him, knocked him down and handcuffed him. Fully a thousand people followed the trio to the station, yelling "Lynch him," but the detectives landed him safely behind the bars. Crowe is supposed to have been crazy from drink. According to his own story he is of respectable family. He worked in the Omaha Packing house before coming here.

LATER—Crowe is a native of Davenport, Iowa, where his wife is at present. His mother resides at West Side, Iowa, and Magistrate King of Omaha is his brother-in-law.

Morgan's Action Denounced.

DENVER, March 7. The Times Washington special says: It would be putting it mild to say that the Colorado colony in Washington feel outraged over the conduct of Commissioner Morgan in taking upon himself the responsibility of sending a report to the secretary of the interior antagonizing the removal of the Southern Utes to Utah. In doing this he has simply pursued the course which was predicted in these dispatches at the beginning of the session, and is performing his part of the contract with the Indian Rights association.

In doing this, however, he violates what was virtually another compact. After it had been said that he would oppose the removal of the Utes, the members of the Colorado delegation called upon him with reference to the matter and in the interview he said he had formed no opinion on the subject and had given out no intimation as to what he would do; that he would, if called upon, give an impartial opinion. Now, without being requested for an opinion, so far as can be ascertained, he comes to the front with a rehash of Painter's old and long since exploded arguments and without paying the least attention to the facts brought out before the congressional committees and of which he was in possession, he says the Utes should not be removed. All this confirms the original statement that he was, even before the investigation was made, opposed to their removal, and simply drew in his horns when he thought his opposition might interfere with his confirmation.

No one can say just what the effect of his report will be though none are at all frightened. He is regarded by western men simply as an Indian rights crank, and if Secretary Noble can be made to see the matter in its true light, as it is hoped may be done, his opposition may in the end be a benefit rather than an injury.

Mysterious Shooting.

DENVER, March 7. A. M. Lomery, son of the ex-chief of police of that name, was brought to the city hall this afternoon with a bullet hole through his left breast and yelling like a mad man: "I am murdered, I am murdered; help me for God's sake." He was taken to the hospital and the ball, a long 22, extracted from his back, after which he swore like a pirate for half an hour. It is now thought he will recover. Nothing can be learned of the shooting except from the two men who brought him to the station. They were working near the Platte, in West Denver, and hearing a shot, went in the direction of the sound and found the wounded boy lying under a tree. Young Lomery refuses to say anything, but it is believed there is a woman at the bottom of the case and he was shot by an injured husband or lover.

Mutiny at Sea.

NEW YORK, March 7. A story of mutiny is told by Captain Wm. Prattley of the ship Reina from Rio Janeiro. The Reina, which is a rice ship from Calcutta, put into Rio commanded by the second mate with nine sailors before the mast. The captain, the first mate and three sailors were in irons.

Several days out from Calcutta some bad pork was given the sailors and during the night nine mutinied. When they complained of the food the captain said he would starve them into submission. The men armed themselves with pistols and pole swords and headed by the second mate they demanded the captain to give them the key to the storeroom. The captain refused and summoned the first mate and five seamen. They only could find two pistols and a musket. Two of the sailors that stood by the captain were shot down by the first mate and three sailors were placed in irons by the mutineers, who brought the ship to Rio. The British consul is informed that a naval court convened which sent the mutineers to jail and they will probably be shipped to England.

An Interesting Question.

DENVER, March 7. Governor Cooper is in receipt of communications from the commissioners of Yuma and Washington counties, requesting him to petition the state supreme court to pass upon the question of the right of counties in this state to fund their indebtedness created subsequent to December 31, 1880. The petition recites that the counties of Yuma and Washington, together with Bent, Logan, Sedgwick, Otero, Prowers, Baca, Phillips, Garfield, Cheyenne, Las Animas, Pitkin, Rio Blanco, Conejos, Huerfano, Rio Grande and others, are desirous of funding or refunding their entire indebtedness, but that serious questions have been raised as to their power to do so under section 6 of article XI of the state constitution, as it relates to all indebtedness contracted after December 31, 1886.

Fifty-First Congress.

SENATE.

The public building bills on the calendar having been reached, the following were passed: Oakland, Cala., $300,000; Cheyenne, Wyo., $150,000, and Helena, Mont., $400,000.

The bill appropriating $500,000 for Salt Lake City having been reached, Plumb moved to reduce the appropriation to $100,000 but Paddock opposed the amendment and said the site was centrally located and could not be had for less than $100,000. The appropriation should really be $700,000. The rent now being paid there by the government was $15,000 to $20,000 per year.

Plumb asserted that when he was in Salt Lake City last summer a suitable site could have been had for $25,000 or $30,000.

The bill went over without action and the Blair educational bill came up as unfinished business.

Hale opposed the bill.

Blair then addressed the senate. He insisted that the republican party pledged in its platform the passage of his bill and he predicted if that party failed to make good its pledge that fact would put an end to the party. He was not mistaken as to the source from which most of the misrepresentation at the north concerning the bill had come. The Jesuitical power of the country had decided that the way to get control of the schools was first to get control of the press. The press had received its full share of attention and had manifested its full share of subservience. The New York papers were monopolies of the worst kind and the country papers had been perverted and poisoned by them.

HOUSE.

The committee on elections to-day reported a resolution in the Alabama contested election case of Treat vs. Clarke that declared Clarke entitled to the seat. It was adopted.

The speaker laid before the house the senate bill referring to the claim of Wood Bridger for the use of the invention of projectiles for rifled cannon. It was defeated.

The house then went into committee of the whole on the private calendar.

Without transacting any business of importance the committee rose, and the house took a recess, the evening session to be for the consideration of pension bills.

The house at the evening session passed five private pension bills and adjourned.

Committee Work.

WASHINGTON, March 7. The house postoffice committee resumed consideration of postal telegraph to day and was addressed in its favor by Ralph Beaumont, chairman of the legislative committee of the Knights of Labor.

Beaumont said that Representative Wade had introduced in the last congress a bill for a government telegraph, embodying the Knights of Labor views, but the bill had died with many others. He did not think the postmaster general's bill was a good business proposition. What farmer would buy half a farm when he could buy a whole? The government was abundantly able to buy the whole thing and carry it on without furnishing business opportunities for some one else. This country was now practically a government of corporations, by corporations and for corporations. Dr. Greco, said Beaumont, was so solicitous about the people in the telegraph business who would be ruined by the government competion, yet he was president of the corporation that repeatedly crushed opposition companies and other people who invested money in the telegraph business. The witness favored Wade's bill and said the government should own, operate and control its own system. He admitted that if the Wanamaker bill resulted in cheap telegraph rates for the people generally, he would be better pleased than under the present system. He wanted the Wade bill passed, but as all legislation was the result of compromise, he should be glad to see the Wanamaker bill passed as the opening wedge.

The senate committee on public lands this morning reported a general land grant forfeiture bill framed on the same lines as the bill passed by the senate during the last congress.

Stock Market.

NEW YORK, March 7. The stock market was more active and stronger in all its departments to day than it has been for some time. Uniform and material movement was the great feature of Reading. The close was active at the best prices of the day. The principal gains are: C. C. C. & St. L. 1¼, Rock Island 1¼, Missouri Pacific and Oregon Transcontinental 1¼ and Northwestern 1½.

THE SUNDAY GAZETTE.

Among the features of to-morrow's big Sunday edition of the GAZETTE will be the following:

A letter from Bill Nye on the resources of Wyoming territory, its people, climate and other points of interest. The letter is full of good things and will no doubt be read with unusual interest, following it does the visit of the great humorist to this city.

Some American and European society skeletons are told about in a characteristic letter from Mrs. John Sherwood, who is at present living in the French capital.

A visit to the Bank of France with King Milan is described in a letter from Paris by Henry La Luberne. Permission to enter the private parts of France's great banking institution is so difficult to obtain that it is seldom an opportunity to describe it is had by a newspaper writer, but through a college acquaintance with King Milan, Mr. La Luberne, during the former's visit in Paris, was enabled with that prince to go through the historic building and many curious and interesting facts are told about it.

Carrie Houghton, the daughter of the former Madrid correspondent of the London Standard and wife of the present correspondent, in the same city, of the London Standard, writes from the Spanish capital on the subject of the late Duke of Alva and his wife Maria Victoria and their short reign in the Madrid palace. The history of King Amadeo's reign is an interesting but sad one and is well told by the writer.

The discussion of the subject of dia...ing with the p... gallery in the na... which has been foolishly ... attacks I earnestly carried on by ... senators who are indignant because p... representatives in Washington succeed in obtaining the proceedings of executive sessions, has attracted much attention of late to that institution. Robert Graves in his letter this week gives a description of the private galleries in both houses and the men that occupy them.

De Fontaine furnishes an article on the various improvements in writing tools, from the ancient quill to the modern typewriter.

Mrs. Colquitt gives some pen pictures of southern women.

"The Dens of Editors" is the topic of an article by George L. Kilmer. The workrooms of Gilder, Aldrich, Curtis and other well known editors are described.

An interview with E. J. Glave, one of Stanley's officers, furnishes the material for an interesting article.

Walt. Wellman in his weekly letter from Washington tells about a group of successful men who began life as barefooted boys in Ashland county, Ohio.

Tales with a large amount of other matter on various topics and all the general and local news of the day will make the GAZETTE of to-morrow one of the most interesting editions ever published in this city.

THE UNITED STATES NAVY.

The Washington correspondent to the New York Sun has made a summary of the sea strength of our navy from the navy register for 1890. This summary will be interesting to our readers, and is as follows:

Our unarmored first rates to-day are the Chicago of 4,500 tons displacement, carrying 14 guns in her main battery; the Baltimore, 4,400 ... and 10 guns; the Philadelphia, 4,324 tons, 12 guns; the Newark and San Francisco, 4,083 tons and 12 guns. The first two are completed; the other three will be ready this year. All are twin screw, steel, protected ships, armed with high power breech loading rifles. The Chicago has the least speed of any but the most powerful battery, and all good vessels.

Of second rate unarmored vessels we have three modern steel, protected cruisers—the Charleston, of 3,730 tons displacement and eight guns, and the Atlanta and Boston, 3,000 tons and eight guns each. All these are completed, and carry eight inch and six inch guns, like those of the Chicago and Baltimore. We have also the wooden Lancaster, 3,250 tons and 18 guns; the famous old Hartford, 2,900 tons and four...n guns; the Pensacola, 3,000 tons ...ven guns; the Richmond, 2,700 tons and four... guns; the Omaha, 2,400 tons and twelve guns. The battleship of the last four are ...ly smooth boats. What is well to note ... is that while not a single vessel has been added to the list of second rates during the ..., those, formerly among the finest of their ... have dropped out. These are the Trenton, 3,900 tons and ten guns, and the Vandalia, 2,936 tons and eight guns, which were both last at Apia, and the Brooklyn, 3,663 tons and fourteen guns, now superannuated and condemned ... Since the first rates remain as a year ..., there is a new list of three vessels, according to the ... in these two classes.

... rates furnish us with four modern ... steel gunboats: the Dolphin, of ... and one six inch gun, and the Yorktown, Concord, and Bennington of 1,700 tons ... six inch guns. The first two are in ... and the others will be ready in ... the remaining unarmored ... are wooden and mostly armed with ... y exclude the Ossipee, Swatara, ... Mohican, Adams, Alliance, Ranger, Yantic, Monongahela, the Iroquois, 1,375, ... 1,020, ... barges, Alert, ... Enterprise, Essex, Intrepid, Monocacy, Yorktown, Finally, ...

...abeth, 1,760 tons and two monitors; the Indiana, 1,100, unarmed; the Alert and Mangrove, 1,000 each, and the Yantic, 921 tons and four guns, ... to be ...

Comparing ... list with ... years we find ... Jamestown and the Quinnebaug, two of the largest of the third class, ... and ... ed out, while the ... ; that, since the putting of the ... Atlanta, the Chicago has been found unfit to repair. The only offset here is the restoration of the Monocacy, which a year ago was put on the list of ... as unserviceable.

The fourth rates stand as last year, their oldest ... eviable ... being the little steel gunboat Petrel, of 325 tons and four breech loading rifles, and the pneumatic gunboat Vesuvius. Other unarmored vessels are the Michigan, Dispatch, Pinta, and Palos, all small. Twelve tugs are also on the lists, to which others will soon be added, and twelve old sailing vessels fulfil various purposes; while of five ships put on the unserviceable list three are so only in the technical sense, being used as receiving ships.

The ... armored ships ... to be of immediate reliance. They include three medium armoredads, the Maine, 6,648 tons and ten guns; the Texas, 6,300 tons and eight guns; the Puritan, 6,000 tons and four guns. These are twin screw vessels, carrying powerful guns, which will eventually add much to our navy, but cannot be completed in 1890. Then come the double turret monitors, Miantonomoh, Amphitrite, Monadnock, and Terror, each of 3,815 tons and carrying four heavy guns. The Miantonomoh is well advanced. The thirteen single turret monitors, Ajax, Canonicus, Mahopac, Manhattan, and Wyandotte, of 2,100 tons each, and the Comanche, Catskill, Jason, Lehigh, Montauk, Nahant, Nantucket, and Passaic, of 1,875 tons each, are all but one in ordinary, and are likely so to remain. A nominal addition to the armored class is the torpedo ram Abarai, of only 800 tons, also in ordinary.

The review of the list, accordingly, shows that while there has been a great advance in our absolute naval strength during the last five years, yet for the past twelve months the recorded number of serviceable vessels has actually decreased. The old time vessels have dropped out faster than the new ones can be got ready. Of course, there are offsets in the fact that vessels like the Baltimore, Yorktown, and Charleston are ready for service now, and were not a year ago, and that others are now under construction which have not yet been named, while the Monterey and the Cushing are not yet put upon the list. Still it is evident that the path of wisdom for congress is to keep up the work of construction by generous appropriations, since with the dropping out of old vessels it will be a long time before an adequate new navy can be made ready to take their place. We also need vessels far more powerful than any yet begun.

It is simply justice to the Typographical union of Colorado Springs to say that its members in this office have always attended to their own business. If there has been any question regarding wages or any other subject it has always been settled by a friendly conference, in which the rights of employer and employe were fully regarded and respected.

Senator Allison is always level headed. Regarding the tariff, he says he is in favor of making a deep cut in the duty on sugar and probably its total abolition with a bounty for home production. He also is opposed to the reduction of the tax on tobacco. It would be absurd at this time to take the tax off of tobacco, with the expenses increasing at the rate they are. There is no tax more easily borne than that on tobacco and whisky. The appropriation for pensions is increasing so rapidly, while the expenses for the navy and public buildings are now so large that it will probably take all of our income this year to pay them.

Last Monday night the mayor of Philadelphia gave a farewell dinner in honor of Charles Emory Smith, who is about to leave for St. Petersburg. Mr. Smith's success in Philadelphia is phenomenal. The people of that city are naturally very conservative and do not greet with favor a man not native born who attempts to take a prominent place in the community. In the short time Mr. Smith has been there all the provincial prejudice against him has disappeared and he is now regarded as a native born Philadelphian. He has effectually taken the force out of the remark that all the newspapers in Philadelphia publish good news, because no news is good news

Dun's Weekly Review.

NEW YORK, March 7. R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review says: The state of trade has not materially altered during the past week though the change of weather has produced much temporary improvement in some lines and in others trade is rather less satisfactory than a week ago. The monetary situation is much more satisfactory notwithstanding the fact that the cash actually held by the treasury is $8,200,000 more than last week for rates on call here have declined from 5 to 2½ per cent and foreign exchange has risen from 4.85½ to 4.86½.

The interior money markets are generally steady, but on the whole rather more easy. At Boston there is still and is expected to be some pressure until April, but the feeling is better and commercial paper commands about 6 per cent. At Philadelphia the situation is substantially the same, but there appears to be more stringency. Money is unchanged at Chicago and fairly active at 6 to 7 at St. Louis and Pittsburg. It is rather abundant, though the demand is large, at Cleveland, and easy at St. Paul and Omaha. It is in good demand at Detroit at 7 and steady at that rate at Milwaukee, the demand at Kansas City being only moderate. The decrease in the actual circulation outside of the treasury in the month of February was $10,276,963, and this with further absorption this month by the treasury indicates a less active commercial demand.

The aspect of the foreign trade does not change as the exports at New York still exceed those of last year a little, while the imports have not shown an increase. The volume of domestic trade appears well sustained with general encouragement noted at Boston and St. Paul, satisfactory distribution in all seasonable lines at St. Louis, a good jobbing trade at Omaha and building operations more than double those of last year, though storms check the retail trade. It is quiet at Milwaukee and Kansas City and at Chicago an improvement over last year. Grain and meats with the dry goods trade are about equal to last year's and the clothing trade only fair in volume. Boston also notes improvement in clothing on western orders, liberal sales of cottons and fair demand for leather with improvement in boots and shoes and a good trade in lumber. Woolen manufacturers do not appear to have changed much in condition or prospects, though better sales of heavy weights are noted at Boston while lighter goods are quiet. The sales of wool there are larger for the week with prices unchanged and it is thought the bottom has been touched, but prices are depressed at Philadelphia and the expectation of new and large supplies leads the holders to make concessions.

Resultant to be Attacked.

ZANZIBAR, March 7. The expedition under Major Wissman and all the German officers belonging to it have started for Saadani, the strongest position held by Bwanaheri's forces. It is the intention of Wissman to attack the place. The German expedition to Usumbru has been successful.

Mwanga, the king of Uganda, who after being deposed and driven from the country returned, and with the aid of the missionaries conquered the rebels, has resumed authority in Uganda. He has proclaimed himself a Christian and given the principal posts to protestants and Catholics, and a dangerous rivalry is springing up between them.

SCHILLER'S DRAMAS.

Mr. Krauss' Lecture Upon the Early Dramas of the German Poet.

The second lecture of Mr. Krauss in the college chapel yesterday afternoon was well attended and the speaker was rewarded by the close attention given his utterances by those present.

Between the years 1770 to 1780 was a time of agitation and revolt in art, religion and literature. An effort was made to break with all historical traditions in Germany. The desire for something new, to be original and creative, prevailed and it received the name of the "storm and stress" period. Poets emancipated themselves from all laws of poetry and many of them perished in their recklessness. Schiller and Goethe alone rescued themselves by their earnest study of philosophy and history.

Schiller was born in 1759 and was very poor in his early years, and gave no promise of intellectual greatness, though a strong sense of liberty was active in his mind from his youth. After being educated in medicine in an academy under the control of the Duke of Wurtemburg, he was appointed a surgeon in the army.

He had difficulty in securing the publication of his first attempts at tragedy. The political horizon of Germany in 1781 breathed a sultry stillness, and Schiller's first drama, "The Robbers," was a protest against the injustice of society. It was rude and faulty, and displayed a lack of knowledge of and experience with men, but it gave proof of the spirit of the author and indicated poetic genius of the first order.

The presentation of Schiller's first plays on the stage and their vigorous protest against the unnatural pressure that rested on society, caused an order to be issued by the duke that he should not publish anything more except on medical subjects and to avoid sterner measures he fled and remained in concealment a year.

Each of his dramas show progress in the dramatic spirit. But it was in historic drama he gained his richest laurels and which placed him by the side of Shakespeare. Many of the characters and much of the humor are worthy of the latter. While engaged as dramatic poet to the theatre in Manheim he endeavored to expose the condition of society due to caste and vividly contrasted the moral life of the higher classes with the plain, honest life of the lower classes. The separation between them was immeasurable at that time. Everything in the state was burdened by the extravagance of the prince and Schiller used all his power to break the chains of prejudice and greed of power which he had felt bitterly in his own lot. Portions of his dramas, which all preached on the text of liberty and greater equality, were analyzed and their beauties and faults pointed out. The impression they made was surprising and showed how German life had been distorted by the "storm and stress" period. Schiller's genius was so great that nothing could withstand its power.

MANITOU SPRINGS.

The Raymond excursionists leave Manitou this morning for Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Nichols are expected home to night from their visit with their son in Chicago.

Editor Chas. H. Frowine, of the Manitou Journal, leaves to-night for a trip in the east. He goes to Michigan and thence to his old home in Ohio.

Ground was broken yesterday for the new residence of Mr. J. Ed. Newton, on Grand avenue. The plans of the building exhibit a design which will be one the handsomest at the resort.

English Lutheran Church.

The City hall will, by the courtesy of the officials, be occupied as a preaching place by the Lutheran people to-morrow, Rev. S. B. Barnitz, western secretary of Lutheran Home missions, officiating. All interested in an English Lutheran organization and the general public will find a cordial welcome. Mr. Barnitz has been in active mission and Sunday school worker and is not entirely unknown to Colorado people. He delivered the address on "Placer Mining" at the State Sunday School convention a few years ago, and also several lectures at Glen Park assembly. The services to-morrow morning will begin at 11 o'clock. Mr. Barnitz is the guest of Mr. Barber, 23 North El Paso street.

"Evangeline."

Rice's Evangeline company will appear at the opera house Monday evening. The Denver Republican has the following to say about their opening performances in that city:

Rice's "Beautiful Evangeline" opened a week's engagement to a packed house at the Tabor Grand last night. It is a decidedly clever production, and for an attraction that has been on the road the length of time that has "Evangeline," its success has been marvelous.

"Vangy" has been before the public the past seventeen years and still it achieves a magnificent triumph. It is full of uproarious fun, constant merriment, the essence of pantomime and the acme of all that is amusing and brilliant.

With such people as George Fortesque as Catherine or "Love's Young Dream," and James S. Maffit as the Lone Fisherman, the originals in the cast, "Evangeline" never grows old, because these two are incomparable; and another reason that the play does not grow old is that Evangeline is now in the hands of a pretty young woman in the person of Miss Yolande Wallace. She is sweet-faced, modest and winning, has a sweet voice and a beautiful figure.

Bessie Tannehill, who takes the part of Gabriel, is a shapely piece of femininity, dashing, and has a voice as clear as the tones of a bell. Ella Rockwell Eolalie, is winsome, and Catherine McClean has a form as symmetrical as a statue. Her enunciation is also nearly perfect.

Peter F. Daly as Le Blanc is the best seen in the West.

As a whole the company is very good and the chorus in voice, figure and costume is excellent. This may especially be said of the march in the second act in which eighteen gorgeously attired females take part.

The music is good. "Where Art Thou Now My Beloved?" "Come to Me Quick it, My Darling," "The Kissing Duets," are particularly taking.

"Evangeline" is not only beautiful in its specialities but the production is now more on the spectacular order than ever.

An important meeting of the school board was held yesterday at which it was decided that an addition will be built to the Lilley school to accommodate the high school next year. The school directors propose to erect a high school building that will be an ornament to the city, and that will be as nearly perfect in arrangement as modern school architecture can make it. They see that this cannot be done in time to open the schools next September, but an addition to the Lilley it is thought is needed and it can be gotten ready in time. The board will proceed with deliberation in building the high school that there may be no mistake. An addition of four or five rooms will be made. What disposition is to be made of the school ground on Cascade avenue is not decided upon, but it will probably be put up at auction and sold to the highest bidder.

Circulars were distributed yesterday announcing a game of ball at the Athletic grounds to-day between the employes of Thompson's People's theatre at Colorado City and a Colorado Springs club. The Colorado City team will be in full theatrical costume and its battery will be Mann and Lytle.

The annual meeting of the Women's Educational society will be held at the First Congregational church this afternoon at 3 o'clock. It will be a very important meeting and the ladies of the city interested in the girls hall should not fail to be present.

Mr. E. L. Bennett stated last night that the papers have not been signed by which he and his brother purchase the Tucker property on Tejon street, but that the sale is practically completed.

Mr. Frank Gilpin returned from the east yesterday morning. Mr. Bernard Gilpin and Mr. W. H. Gesselbracht, who have been in the Barbadoes for the winter, are now en route home.

Only two of the store rooms in the Hagerman block have been leased yet, the corner which will be occupied as a drug store and the room on the alley by the abstract company.

The Rafield Roadsters will take a run to morrow, assembling at 10 o'clock. The captain will announce the run.

The Lottery Deal.

BISMARCK, N. D., March 7. A private letter on the lottery scheme written by Attorney General Goodwin to a newspaper friend in Lisbon has been brought to light. The document states definitely that $300 was paid to members to support the lottery bill with the understanding that the amount would be doubled when the measure was passed. Rumors of lotteries are thick. It is said an attempt will be made to impeach Goodwin for the alleged part he has taken in the deals.

Premier Tisza Resigns.

PESTH, March 7. The differences between Tisza, the prime minister, and other members of the Hungarian cabinet in regard to the naturalization of Louis Kossuth have finally resulted in the withdrawal from the ministry of Tisza. The emperor has accepted his resignation. Count Von Szechenije, at present the minister of agriculture, will succeed Tisza as prime minister. Harmony prevails among the other members of the cabinet. Tisza will continue as the leader of the liberals.

In the diet to-day Tisza stated that differences existed in the cabinet regarding the naturalization bill and if not settled soon he would inform the house of his intentions. He denied that a ministerial crisis has yet arisen.

Pesther Lloyd states that Tisza offered to resign and the emperor received his decision.

Financial Shock.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 7. The private banking firm of Belloc Freres, closed to-day. The liabilities are estimated at half a million dollars. The establishment is a branch of the banking house of Belloc Freres, of Paris. It is expected that as soon as the firm receives a remittance from Paris they will be able to pay all demands.

Three Children Suffocated.

BOSTON, March 7. The young children of Moses Feldman, a Russian Jew peddler, were left alone in the house to-day and started a fire while playing with a match. Three of them were unconscious from the smoke before the firemen could get at them and will not recover. The other one escaped into the hall.

Nominations.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 7. A special to the Journal from Jefferson City says: State Treasurer Nolan handed a written resignation to Governor Francis this afternoon but the governor has not decided whether he will accept it. Nolan's bondsmen say the deficit is $89,718.

Three Young Men Drowned.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., March 7. Two sons of William Baker were trying to cross the river sixteen miles above here yesterday when their boat capsized and all were drowned.

Cave in in a Mining Town.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 7. A suburb of Plymouth, known as Curry's Hill, was terribly shaken by a cave in this morning, the surface settling in some places ten feet. One house was completely wrecked and several others badly damaged. No one was seriously hurt.

Pendleton's Body Arrives.

CINCINNATI, March 7. The body of ex-Minister Pendleton was brought here to-night. The funeral exercises and interment take place to-morrow.

Wood Pulp Wagons.

New uses for wood pulp are constantly being devised. One of the latest is its employment as the basis of a plastic compound to serve as a substitute for lime mortar in covering and finishing walls, and the process has been patented. It is designed to possess all the desirable qualities of ordinary mortar with the additional qualities of being harder, and when applied to wood work in a thin coat rendering it both fire and waterproof.—New York Telegram.

African Musical Instruments.

"It is rather curious to notice that all the instruments originally identified with negro minstrelsy have come from Africa."

"The bones and tambourine, too?"

"Yes. Both tambourine and bones, or castanets, were brought into Spain from Africa by the Moors. They are both savage instruments, almost unmodified. The funniest and most primitive musical instrument I ever heard of, however, I saw used by a darky down in Florida, who laid one horny and previously licked forefinger on the edge of a table and sawed across it back and forth with a round stick. The table served as a sounding board, and at each stroke of the stick across the finger a long drawn, lugubrious note of some loudness was produced. It did the work for an orchestra at a negro party consisting besides of a banjo and a tambourine."—Interview in Washington Star.

When We Sleep.

Modern physiological research proclaims sleep to be the result of a certain amount of blood being attracted from the brain, to lie quiescent, if not dormant, in certain channels and vessels, which during the waking period are apparently empty, or at best very flabby, and in a condition, as it were, of negation. In proof of this view it is a well known fact that a good, healthy, restful sleeper usually if ever does ponder when fully in the pall of that "I AM THE KING OF PEACE."

The Strange Claim Made by the Founder of a New Religious Sect.

The Church Triumphant is the name of a religious community which has its headquarters on a farm six miles from Rockford, Ills., and branches in Michigan, Minnesota and other northwestern states, the most notable offshoot from the main society being the one at Minneapolis. The head of the Church Triumphant is George Jacob Schweinfurth, a man 37 years of age. He was born in Marion county, O., and on reaching manhood became a Methodist minister. He fell away from that faith however and joined himself with the Beckmanites. After the death of Mrs. Beckman he announced that he was Christ in carnate. His companions accepted the statement and the community now in successful operation at Rockford was formed.

Their place of residence is on a large farm, and a good revenue is derived from stock and crops. Outside their peculiar belief the followers of Schweinfurth appear to be people of ordinary intelligence. They live quietly, pay their debts, and welcome visitors with hospitality. Sunday, they listen to "revelations" from their leader, who is a man of respectable bearing. The proselyting work of the Church Triumphant has caused much domestic trouble in homes at Rockford and Minneapolis, but it is not known that any charges of immorality have been fully established. The home where Schweinfurth lives is handsomely furnished and the head of the community possesses a valuable library. His large portrait in the reception room above the frame the inscription, "I am the King of Peace." The picture represents Mr. Schweinfurth wearing a tall hat and pants. The people of Rockford, particularly the merchants, are content to have this strange community so close at hand, as it is always pointed out to visitors as one of the local celebrities. The Church Triumphant now has about 1,000 adherents in the west.

Quite a Mistake.

There were two barristers at the Irish bar, one named Mahaffy, who was very tall, and another, called Collis, who was very short. Both were engaged in a case before Lord Redesdale, who was not yet personally acquainted with the lawyers. Mr. Collis was opening the motion, when Lord Redesdale observed it.

"Mr. Collis, when a barrister addresses the court he must stand."

"I am standing, my lord," said Collis.

"I beg a thousand pardons," muttered the judge, much confused.

"Sit down, Mr. Mahaffy."

"I am sitting, my lord," was the reply to the confounded chancellor. Yeowine's News.

She Evidently Knew.

Jones' wife was not a very bright woman, but she sometimes said things which were worthy of a wit. One day, after doing or saying something silly, her husband snapped out:

"Well, you are a little the worst I ever saw."

"Why, what's the matter now? Have I done anything wrong?"

"I should say so. You don't know the difference between a horse and a donkey, I don't believe."

"I didn't say you were a horse, did I?" she replied meekly, and Jones said no more.—Merchant Traveler.

Statistics and careful estimates of the increase of population in the United States since 1000 indicate that there will be a total of 67,000,000 people at the time of the next census, July 1, 1890.—Statesman.

Diphtheria's Ravages.

ZANESVILLE, O., March 7. Hon. J. C. McGregor, reading clerk of the state house of representatives, died this morning of diphtheria. Mrs. McGregor died last Friday, immediately after the death of four children, making six deaths in the family within a little over two weeks. One of the four small children remaining now, is very low, together with McGregor's aged father, for whom there is little hope of recovery.

Explosion in a Factory.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 7. A special from Evansville, Ind., to the Sentinel says: An explosion occurred at noon in the shaving, or dust room, of the Armstrong furniture factory and resulted in a fire, completely wrecking the room. Three boys, Fred Sachs, William Chatham and George Crawford, who were in the room eating dinner, were burned to death. Charles Shaby, an engineer, had both legs broken and his head badly crushed.

Insecherous Ice.

MINNEAPOLIS, March 7. A special to the Tribune from Mason City, Iowa, says: James McIntosh, of Spirit Lake, accompanied by two young ladies, daughters of James Evans, while driving on the ice across Okabaji Lake today, drove into an air hole and all were drowned.

THE GAZETTE.

SUNDAY, MARCH 9, 1890.

The [illegible] was placed in the front [illegible] yesterday.

[illegible] for the old Corum residence on North Weber street was $5,200 and it is considered a bargain.

F. B. Wortman, of Edward Ferris' real estate agency, sold 100 feet in West Colorado Springs yesterday for $1600, in block 11.

Mr. Kirk, at one time a baggage agent in this city for the Rio Grande railroad, is now residing at Boulder and is the assistant postmaster.

Alderman Gillingham has finished a photograph of our "finest," taken in a group, and has it exhibited in his window. It is an excellent picture.

Members of the Woman's Aid society will please notice that the special meeting of the society appointed for this afternoon is indefinitely postponed.

A subscription of $10 has been sent the Inland Printer, published at Chicago, from Belize, British Honduras, for the Printers' home, to be built in this city.

McLain & Wright sold 32 lots in Grand View and Knob Hill additions yesterday to some eastern capitalists who will invest considerable more capital hereabouts.

The Rio Grande Express company will move into its new quarters in the brick block this evening, and be ready for business bright and early Monday morning.

Mr. Thomas D. Rimmer and Miss Estella Karlens of this city were married Thursday evening, by Rev. A. C. Peck. "Tom" is receiving the congratulations of his many friends.

County Clerk Howbert has had a fire screen placed about a portion of his counter, that inquisitive persons may not overhaul his books and papers every time he leaves them for a few minutes.

The annual banquet of the Crowell Hose company will be given Tuesday evening next, following the regular meeting of the company. Mrs. Reed will serve the banquet at the Arlington restaurant.

Grace & Hyde expect to have The Antlers addition ready by August 1st, next. Work upon the masonry was begun yesterday, but will be delayed a few days awaiting the arrival of a shipment of cement.

Beezy & Tuckerman have received four tons of the Sherwin-Williams house paint, for which they are the agents. This is a heavy shipment, but the paint is so popular that it will all be consumed in the spring trade.

Edward Ferris' real estate agency has an option for seven days upon a line of property at the northwest corner of Oak street and Pike's Peak avenue for $1,000. The land is one hundred feet and has good improvements.

The Salvation Army case was continued in the county court yesterday, occupying the entire day. Evidence for the defense was not all in at the hour for adjournment last night. The trial will be continued at 10 o'clock this morning.

The republican primary committee of the city will have a meeting for consultation at Mr. Reuben Berrey's office this evening. It is not probable that a city convention and ward primaries will be called until after Monday night, when it will be known what the council will do in the matter of a Fifth ward.

On Sunday, the 9th, the D. & R. G. will put on another train between Pueblo and Denver, getting here at 2 45 p. m. going north and at 1 30 p. m. going south. This is to be a first-class daily broad gauge train. Round trip tickets good for ten days on sale at $4 50 to Denver and return and $2.50 to Pueblo and return on all trains.

Dr. Chester J. Reynolds has decided to engage in the real estate business and will open an office at No. 3 North Tejon street, having taken a leave of the small room in Robinson's drug store. Dr. Reynolds will engage in real estate, loans, etc., and from years of experience is fully posted as to properties and values in this city.

A gentleman who is much interested in the welfare of the city expressed himself strongly yesterday regarding the condition of some of the city streets. He cannot see why the business men are compelled to regulate the location and size of street signs, while other persons litter the walks with ash cans. He thinks Huerfano street particularly objectionable in this respect.

Announcement was made yesterday morning in the GAZETTE that City Clerk McCreary had ordered the pipe for the large main through Tejon street. Fourteen-inch pipe will be laid between Cucharras and Bijou streets, and the order for the pipe has been placed with Shickle, Harris & Howard, of St. Louis. It will require about 2000 feet, and besides a number of Chapman plugs will be placed along the line of the main.

Press dispatches from Milwaukee Tuesday announced the suicide of W. H. Farnum, assistant secretary of the Northwestern Life Insurance company of Milwaukee. Major Remick, the local agent had a dispatch from the president of the company, in which it was stated that the probable cause was an unbalanced mind from over-work, and that there was no possible business complication of any nature. Mr. Farnum has a number of friends residing in this city.

The contract was let on Thursday for 1800 poles to be used by the rapid transit road. Frank Costello of Florissant got the contract. The poles used are about the height of an ordinary telephone pole. It has been practically settled that the electric company's power house will be located in the south part of the city. Ground was purchased for that purpose yesterday just the northeast corner of Moreno avenue and Cascade avenue, also at the northwest corner of Moreno avenue and Tejon street.

Mr. Jesse O'Neill, in Fechter's adaptation of Dumas' story of "Monte Cristo," will be the next attraction at the opera house following Evangeline. Both the play and the actor are well known, but theatre goers are this year promised an excellent supporting company, new scenery painted expressly for the play by D. W. Hughes and costumes [illegible] In the lead character of Edmond Dantes, the Count of Monte Cristo, Mr. O'Neill always kept his hearers wrapt in attention as the outspoken sailor boy, afterwards the miserable prisoner of eighteen years and then as the cool and determined possessor of the treasures of Monte Cristo with vengeance his only aim.

With in the Western markets, undersigned contracted for five hundred Chamber Suites of different lines. Since January the first, we have sold for the Alamo Hotel, 65 suites, The Barker House, 44 suites, The Glockner Sanitarium, 30 suits, which together with a number of other other large and small bills will run the aggregate up to more than two hundred suites. Our experience and knowledge of the business and acquaintance in the market guarantee our purchases on the lowest possible basis, and it must be apparent to everybody that a firm that can buy and sell in such quantities can buy for 10, 15 and 25 dollars per suite less than the dealer who orders in small lots, and who does not agree to dispose of any certain number of suites.

We have been in the Mercantile business for 18 years, through all kinds of competition, and the livelier the better for us, as it only demonstrates to the satisfaction of all, that we can not be undersold. So come right along, we do not charge $2 to [illegible] a single customer on any item of General House Furnishings.

Everybody's Chance!

Every person who owns real estate in Colorado Springs has made money in the last thirty days; everyone who buys at present prices will make money. Almost every day you hear of someone buying a piece of property and being immediately offered from $100 to $1000 for his bargain. There are good reasons for this advance: The building of the motor lines, the extension of the Burlington and the completion of the Pike's Peak railroad will give the city a boom, and all the croakers can't stop it. Many people do not buy property because it requires more ready money than they have on hand, and they are thus barred out from receiving any of the benefits of the advance in prices. But we have made such easy terms on our lots in our new South End addition that anyone can buy and pay for a pair of lots.

Our new addition is just on the market, the prices are down to bed rock, and there is money in the lots to those who buy before prices are advanced. We are selling good lots at from $80 to $100 each, on terms of $10 Cash and $5 a month thereafter on each lot. These are the lowest prices and the easiest payments that are offered in the city. You can buy choice in this addition if you buy now.

We have a few more fine lots on South Cascade on monthly payments of $5. We offer these at last summer prices, and there is money in them.

We have a fine assortment of Parish addition property at bottom prices.

Do you know there is money in running a chicken farm or in raising vegetables for market? We have some fine garden tracts from 5 to 10 acres.

We have a fine selection of good houses of 3 to 9 rooms in all parts of the city at $800 to $3500 each on monthly payments of $15 to $50.

You can make money by dealing with us. No trouble to show goods.
